

Centre For Training In Research Methods

Established under the Directorate of Research, the Centre for Training in Research Methods is dedicated to equipping research scholars with essential skills. Our primary focus is to organize workshops on research methodology, offer courses covering publication ethics and provide consistent training in utilizing statistical tools and programmes for effects data analysis and modeling methods.

Emphasizing regular engagement our centre is committed to fostering a culture of continuous learning and development among research scholars. Explore the opportunities to enhance your research capabilities with us as we strive to contribute to the advancement of scholarly pursuits within the academic community.
